Impairment Detection Training for Employers

Presented by: Amanda O’Leary – Maine Bureau of Labor Statistics

This one-day training session is designed to help owners, managers, and supervisors recognize and respond appropriately to employee impairment in the workplace in order to reduce worker accidents and injuries. Participants will be taught procedures to detect impairment regardless of the substance or cause. This class is designed to fulfill the federal DOT requirements for reasonable suspicion training of supervisors. In addition, participants will learn how to develop and implement policies that address impairment in the workplace and are in compliance with Maine's Substance Use Testing Law.

Who Should Attend? Managers/Supervisors; Human Resource Directors; Safety Coordinators

Program Fee: $75/pp
