The Loggers Voice

The Logger's Voice, which is published quarterly, provides a relevant and comprehensive look at the logging industry in Maine. "The Logger's Voice" is the only publication that is focused on the issues that affect logging in Maine. The Logger's Voice is sent to over 200 logging contractors in Maine and 150 supporting members. Digitally, it is also distributed to industry leaders, foresters, logging supporters and our state and federal representatives. Advertisers can count on reaching the people who want to do business with them. Readers can count on finding stories that matter in every quarterly issue.

AS A SUPPORTING MEMBER - you receive one copy of the magazine and at least one free ad annually!

Member Handbook

Member Handbook: This is a 6" x 9" tabbed, spiral bound desk/truck Member Handbook with information on the PLC of Maine, Log A Load, Member Directory, Supporting Member directory, emergency contact information, how to contact your representative, safety information, training information, useful resources, BMP information, a buyers guide and discount directory and advertising opportunities.
